וּיצָרוֹר בְּצָרוֹר הַחַיִּים אֶת נַשְׁמָתָם

"May their souls be bound up in the bond of the eternal"

RABBI MENACHEM MENDEL OF KOTZK WOULD SAY:

אין דבר שלם יותר מלב שבור

EIN DAVAR SHALEIM YOTEIR MILEV SHAVUR

“THERE IS NOTHING MORE WHOLE THAN A BROKEN HEART.”

Eternal God, Master of mercy, give me the gift of remembering. May my memories of the dead be tender and true, undiminished by time, not falsified by sentimentality. Let me recall them, and love them, as they were. Give me the gift of tears. Let me express my sense of loss, my sorrow, my pain, as well as my gratitude and my love. Give me the gift of prayer. May I confront You with an open heart, with trusting faith, unembarrassed and unashamed. Give me the gift of hope. May I always believe in the beauty of life, the power of goodness, the right to joy. May I surrender my being, and the soul of the dead, to You eternal compassion.

SIDDUR SIM SHALOM

THE DEATH OF A PARENT

Move to the front of the line
a voice says, and suddenly there is nobody left standing between you and the world, to take the first blows
on their shoulders.
This is the place in books
where part one ends, and part two begins, and there is no part three.
The slate is wiped not clean but like a canvas painted over in white
so that a whole new landscape
must be started,
bits of the old
still showing underneath
those colors sadness lends to a certain hour of evening.
Now the line of light
at the horizon
is the hinge between earth and heaven, only visible
a few moments
as the sun drops
its rusted padlock into place.

LINDA PASTAN

It's a little low light the yahrzeit candle makes, you couldn't read by it or even warm your hands. So the dead are with us only as the scent of fresh coffee, of cinnamon, of pansies excites the nose and then fades,
with us as the small candle burns in its glass.
We lose and we go on losing as long as we live,
a little winter no spring can melt.

MARGE PIERCY

We miss them at celebrations,
When there's an empty seat at the table.
We miss them when the community gathers,
and there's an empty place beside us.
We miss them today, and every today,
With every year that passes,
As our life goes on without them.
Their faces, their voices, the feel of our arms around them
These are with us forever.
For so it is written:
Love is strong as death.
The love that we gave, the love we received
These endure amid the pain of loss.

MISHKAN HANEFESH

If some messenger were to come to us with the offer that death should be overthrown, but with the one inseparable condition that birth should also cease; if the existing generation were given the chance to live forever, but on the clear understandings that never again would there be a child, or a youth, or first love, never again new persons with new hopes, new ideas, new achievements; ourselves for always and never any others—could the answer be in doubt?

We shall not fear the summons of death; we shall remember those who have gone before us, and those who will come after us!

“Alas for those who cannot sing, but die with all their music in them.” Let us treasure the time we have, and resolve to use it well, counting each moment precious—a chance to apprehend some truth, to experience some beauty, to conquer some evil, to relieve some suffering, to love and be loved, to achieve something of lasting worth.

Help us, Lord, to fulfill the promise that is in each of us, and so to conduct ourselves that, generations hence, it will be true to say of us: The world is better because, for a brief space, they lived in it.

HERBERT SAMUEL

In the rising of the sun and in its going down,
we remember them.

In the blowing of the wind and in the chill of winter,
we remember them.

In the opening buds and in the rebirth of spring,
we remember them.

In the blueness of the sky and in the warmth of summer,
we remember them.

In the rustling of leaves and in the beauty of autumn,
we remember them.

In the beginning of the year and when it ends,
we remember them.

When we are weary and in need of strength,
we remember them.

When we are lost and sick at heart,
we remember them.

When we have joys we yearn to share,
we remember them.

So long as we live, they too shall live,
for they are now a part of us,
as we remember them.

Birth is a beginning
And death a destination.
And life is a journey:
From childhood to maturity
And youth to age;
From innocence to awareness
And ignorance to knowing;
From foolishness to discretion
And then, perhaps, to wisdom;
From weakness to strength
Or strength to weakness—
And, often, back again;
From health to sickness
And back, we pray, to health again;
From offense to forgiveness,
From loneliness to love,
From joy to gratitude,
From pain to compassion,
And grief to understanding
From fear to faith;
From defeat to defeat to defeat
Until, looking backward or ahead,
We see that victory lies
Not at some high place along the way,
But in having made the journey, stage by stage,
A sacred pilgrimage.
Birth is a beginning
And death a destination.
And life is a journey,
A sacred pilgrimage—
To life everlasting.

RABBI ALVIN I. FINE

All who mourn the loss of loved ones, and, at this hour, remember the sweet companionship and the cherished hopes that have passed away with them, give ear to the word of comfort spoken in the name of God. Only the body has died and has returned to the dust. The spirit lives in the shelter of God's love and mercy. Our love does live on, as well, in the remembrance of those to whom they were precious. Their deeds of loving kindness, the true and beautiful words they spoke, are treasured as inspiration for deeds by which the living honor the dead.

And when we ask in our grief: from where will our help come? Then in the strength of faith let us answer with the Psalmist: Our help will come from God. God will not forsake us or leave us in our grief. Upon the Holy One we cast our burden, and God will grant us strength to live out the days apportioned to us. And life comes from God; all souls are in God's keeping. Come then, all who share in this community of sympathy and support: Let us rise and hallow the name of God.

THE UNION PRAYERBOOK, ADAPTED

May these moments of meditation link me more strongly with my closest companions in life—my soulmate, my friend, my confidant, my helping hand, my listening heart, my compass, my shining light.

In spite of death, our deep bonds of love are strong.

May I always be worthy of that love.

May the memory of our companionship lead me out of loneliness;
may it awaken in my gratitude for that which still endures.

And may you rest forever in dignity and peace.
